

The global crisis, social protection and jobs

Deskripsi Lengkap: <https://lib.ui.ac.id/detail?id=125941&lokasi=lokal>

Abstrak

Policy responses to the global financial meltdown of 2008 and the collapse of aggregate demand have largely been driven by domestic interests. Resurgent protectionism, bank bail-outs and national-level stimulus packages are distorting competition and incentives to the detriment of developing countries, much needed spending on social protection and ultimately, rapid global economic recovery.....
