

Ikan napoleon , cheilinus undulatus, ikan karang terbesar dari famuli labridae

Deskripsi Lengkap: <https://lib.ui.ac.id/detail?id=130071&lokasi=lokal>

Abstrak

Napoleon fishes, cheilinus undulatus, is the largest member of family labridae, with a maximum size exceeding up to 2 m and 190 kgs. The geographical distribution covers of Indo-Pacific region. Napoleon fish is not common, recorded maximum adult densities rarely more than 20 fish /10.000m². Small individuals are typically associated with high coral cover and seagrasses, while larger fishes are mainly found on outer or deep reefs, steep slopes and passes, solitary or in a small group....