Abstrak

The capability of a national to solve the problem and, at the same time, to gain development can be seen at the effort to create a stable and strong government, so that it can work effectively. Any government system's user always strives for creating that condition by developing political power's ruler of majority, by means of using Majority General System Election and Strategic Coalition. This paper will discuss the effort how to combine the creation of Majority General System Election with strategic Coalition in order to create a stable and strong government.
