Abstrak

Tesis ini membahas tradisi lisan mowindahako suku Tolaki di Sulawesi Tenggara. Dengan menggunakan pendekatan "formula" yang dikemukakan oleh Albert. B Lord. Penelitian ini adalah penelitian kualitatif dengan melakukan observasi, wawancara, dan analisis teks. Hasil penelitian tradisi lisan mowindahako memperlihatkan adanya pola pewarisan yang dilakukan berdasarkan keturunan langsung dan pola pewarisan yang bukan keturunan langsung. Dalam penelitian ini pula ditemukan formula satu kata, formula setengah baris maupun satu baris. Formula yang dominan muncul adalah formula satu baris dan satu kata, sedangkan formula setengah baris jarang pemunculannya.

This thesis discussed the Tolaki tribe's oral tradition mowindahako in Southeast Sulawesi using ?formula? approached by Albert B. Lord. The qualitative method was applied in order to find the passing-on pattern of Tolaki's and texts analyzes were conducted. The results showed that the passing-on pattern was conducted based on lineage and non-lineage. Moreover, it is found that "formulas" in mowindahako included one-word, half-line, and one-line formula. The most appeared formulas are the one-word and the one-line formula, while the half-line formula rarely appeared.
