Universitas Indonesia Library >> Artikel Jurnal

Tindak pidana pencucian uang (money laundering) dalam perspektif hukum internasioanl

Yunus Husein, author

Deskripsi Lengkap: https://lib.ui.ac.id/detail?id=20301798&lokasi=lokal

Abstrak

Money Laundering it considered as a transnational organized crime. The logic of elimination money laundering it to omit the criminal motivation to enjoy their proceed of crime. The efforts to eliminate money laundering is much related to the issues of national jurisdiction. Thus, it requires international cooperation among countries, where international law is needed Even though there is still no specifyc convention about money laundering, but regulation about money laundering is* partially arranged in some conventions such os Wanna Convention 1988 and in UN Convention on Transnational Organized Crimes 2000. ,indonesia has enected a regulation about money laundering that is' UU no. I5 year of 2000, which is amended by no. 25 year of 2003. This article will describe the implementation of international law on money laundering in Indonesia and the reason why Indonesia it still included in the list of non-cooperatives countries and territories (NCCI).