

Blek seorang "Tukang Comot" (studi kasus proses belajar perilaku penculikan)

Deskripsi Lengkap: <https://lib.ui.ac.id/detail?id=20333947&lokasi=lokal>

Abstrak

This study emphasizes the delineation behavior learning process of the abduction through the perspective of criminology journalism. How the learning process is traveled in the scope of the complex social environment. According to qualitative research with a descriptive approach. In collecting data this research, based on journalism investigation rule that uphold the accuracy, validity of information, and research ethics. The ethical approach before making a depth and structure interviews to all sources is key to the successive collection of data. Supported by the audio-visual recording equipment as evidence of authentic information, so the analysis will be more comprehensive and profound.