Abstrak

This research focuses on females victimization which experienced by the three of my informants. This research purposed to observe females victimization that conducted sexual relationship in dating relationship. The method in this research is indepth interview and non participant observation toward their relationship with their Hrst time sexual partner Three informants did sexual relationship in dating relationship without economic motive and they were not free sex liner. The result shows that informants had been victimized physically psychology sexually and economically when doing sexual relationship because of patriarchal construction in their social life. Besides, there is also attempts from their boyfriend to control them by using their sexuality.
