ABSTRACT

This thesis studies the SWFs which are defined as special purpose investment funds or arrangements, owned by the general government. Created by the general government for macroeconomic purposes. SWFs hold, manage, or administer assets to achieve financial objectives, and employ a set of investment strategies, which include investing in foreign financial assets. Santiago principles facilitated and supported by IMF in October 2008 has succeeded in identifying and drafting a set of Generally Accepted Principles and practices (GApp). This subject is studied in International Economic Law's perspective.
