

Perdebatan konsep intervensi kemanusiaan dan keterkaitannya dengan great debate dalam hubungan internasional = Humanitarian intervention concept and great debate in international relations

Caroline Widagdo, author

Deskripsi Lengkap: <https://lib.ui.ac.id/detail?id=20392944&lokasi=lokal>

Abstrak

[Konsep intervensi kemanusiaan merujuk kembali kepada great debate dalam hubungan internasional antara idealisme dan realisme. Intervensi kemanusiaan menjadi sebuah konsep yang ditawarkan oleh perspektif idealisme sebagai sebuah tanggung jawab komunitas internasional untuk membantu pemenuhan hak hidup setiap individu di negara yang tidak mampu menjalankan fungsi perlindungan terhadap warga negaranya. Pelaksanaan intervensi yang melewati batasan yurisdiksi dan otoritas pemerintah negara berdaulat bertentangan dengan prinsip dasar kedaulatan dalam hubungan internasional. Pengaruh Great Powers dalam pelaksanaan intervensi kemanusiaan juga menimbulkan kritik dari realisme yang melihatnya sebagai sebuah politik kekuatan. Hal tersebut menarik perhatian penulis untuk mengkaji lebih lanjut mengenai perdebatan-perdebatan yang muncul dalam pembahasan mengenai intervensi kemanusiaan. Tulisan ini akan memberikan pembahasan mengenai perdebatan intervensi kemanusiaan dalam keterkaitannya dengan great debate dalam hubungan internasional, serta beberapa alternatif pemikiran ideal terkait perdebatan tersebut.];The concept of humanitarian intervention referred back to the great debate in international relations between idealisme and realism. Idealism explained humanitarian intervention as a mechanism of responsibility of the international community to help every individual to meet their basic rights. International community have the obligation to help a nation which the government could not fulfilled their responsibility to protect the citizen. Despite its moral background, the practice of humanitarian intervention is breaking the rules of sovereignty and non-intervention in international relations. Critics from realism focus on the violation of sovereignty and domination of Great Powers in the implementation of the concept. The paper explored the concept of humanitarian intervention in its relations with great debate between idealism and realism in IR, along with some alternative perspectives around the debates.];The concept of humanitarian intervention referred back to the great debate in international relations between idealisme and realism. Idealism explained humanitarian intervention as a mechanism of responsibility of the international community to help every individual to meet their basic rights. International community have the obligation to help a nation which the government could not fulfilled their responsibility to protect the citizen. Despite its moral background, the practice of humanitarian intervention is breaking the rules of sovereignty and non-intervention in international relations. Critics from realism focus on the violation of sovereignty and domination of Great Powers in the implementation of the concept. The paper explored the concept of humanitarian intervention in its relations with great debate between idealism and realism in IR, along with some alternative perspectives around the debates., The concept of humanitarian intervention referred back to the great debate in international relations between idealism and realism. Idealism explained humanitarian intervention as a mechanism of responsibility of the international community to help every individual to meet their basic rights. International community have the obligation to help a nation which the government could not fulfilled their responsibility to protect the citizen. Despite its moral background, the practice of humanitarian intervention is breaking the rules of sovereignty and non-intervention in international relations. Critics from realism focus on the violation of sovereignty and domination of Great Powers in the implementation of the concept. The paper explored the concept of humanitarian intervention in its relations with great debate between idealism and realism in IR, along with some alternative perspectives around the debates.]