Abstrak

For a long time now people abroad and in this country have formed wrong iades on the development of the Indonesian Armed Forces. All that people know is that in 1949, with the transfer of sovereignty, the Indonesian Armed Forces emerged as a victor from the struggle for independence. However, despite the fact that the Armed Forces have won this freedom fight, it is generally thought that the ARmed Forces of the Republic of Indonesian merely consist of partisans. This general view is due to the absence of the elementary basis of every well organized army : armament, military education and a standard ability of every soldier ...
