[ABSTRAK

Menyelesaikan pekerjaan pada umumnya akan lebih mudah bila diselesaikan bersama dengan orang lain. Tesis ini akan membahas bagaimana suatu kelompok bisa bekerja secara efektif. Dimulai dari cara pembentukan kelompok, pembagian tugas setiap anggota, sampai penyelesaian konflik yang terjadi di dalam kelompok itu sendiri. Sehingga, menyelesaikan pekerjaan akan lebih mudah dibandingkan dengan secara individu. Kasus yang digunakan merupakan pengalaman pribadi dalam berorganisasi, lalu dianalisa menggunakan teori ? teori bekerja bersama kelompok.

ABSTRACT

It is generally accepted that a job will be significantly easier if it is done as a team. This paper will talk about how a group can work effectively. Group structuring, member's roles, and conflict solving will be define. Therefore, working as a team will actually be better than as an individual. The case was my own experience in an organization, then it is analyzed using working with groups and teams theories., It is generally accepted that a job will be significantly easier if it is done as a team.
