

Kebijakan dan strategi Dinas Kesehatan Kabupaten/Kota dalam mendukung reformasi Puskesmas studi di 6 (enam) Provinsi di Indonesia

Deskripsi Lengkap: <https://lib.ui.ac.id/detail?id=20406228&lokasi=lokal>

Abstrak

Public health center reform as decentralization step in health sector had poured into SK Menkes No. 128/MENKES/SK/2004 about public health center basic policies. The aims of this research are to identified policy and strategy of district health office on health center reform included health human resources reform, health effort reform, health financing reform, and health management reform. The research done in 6 provinces, by purposive sampling that is DIY, Bengkulu, South Kalimantan, South Sulawesi, East Kalimantan and papua province. Each province chosen 1 regency and 1 municipality. Health Center which performing reform chose, amount of sample health center around 52 units. Data collecting done by indepth interview, secondary data and focus group discussion (FGD), and y descriptive analysis. The result of research indicating that policy and strategy District Health Office in supporting health center reform, (a) in HRD reform performed through flattening health personnel with job contract, (b) in health center effort reform through improving health services access ad revitalization, (c) in health financing reform performed with health center services with Certification ISO 9001 and Community Based Health Effort (UKBM) revitalization. Therefore necessary done institutional established in regional and relation manner, as well as allocating health budget suitable with determined health development objectives