Abstrak

As syari'ah, al-Qur'an is one of the sources of Islamic law and the living orientation for Muslim ummah in going through their life. Textual message of Islam (al-Qur'an) had stopped when Muhammad died. In other side, the growing up of the problems is faster than their solutions can be made. The problems grow up in line with globalization and information technology that offer some traditions and cultures that meet our different cultures and traditions. We can't create a new message of al-Qur'an in nowadays context. We need to use methodological tools from multidiscipline of science in understanding al-Qur'an in order to actualize spirit of al-Qur'an in Indonesian and nowadays context.
