Abstrak

Although the essence of human being have been questioned long time ago, there are many conceptual answers toward that question. Thus it common if human beings, as social and individual creatures may try to question it to find new answers. The answer is mainly gotten by contemplating one's self based on the existing concept or reflecting one's self using an individual spiritual experience. The understanding to the essence of human beings describes in this writing is based on the concept given by al-Syaikh al-Akbar ibn Arabi, it is philosophical and also sufistic. Who is a man? A man is “God” in its tajalli perfect form in the universe. Therefore, a man is not perfect when he can not show God's characteristics. Ibn Arabi says, “One of this characteristics is to be come a responsible leader either for himself or others”.
