Pengaruh Budaya Pra-Islam pada makam di desa Salakaria, kecamatan Sukadana-Ciamis

The tomb contains varieties of important data that can describe the society in the past. A lot of understandings and meaning exist in the form of the tomb as a cultural heritage. From the results of research in the Salakaria Village, Sukadana District, Ciamis, the ancient tombs in the region still follow the pre-Islamic culture. It can be seen from the shape of the building in its sepulcher tomb, gravestone and materials. It is also seen from the placement of the tomb and the culture that is still going on at the site of the tomb. This paper used the research method with descriptive analysis, which means to describe the components of the tomb, and then analysis and interpretation are carried out. The historical and cultural background of the past in the Salakaria village, Sukadana District describe a form of cultural continuity or continuous culture from prehistoric times to the Islamic period
