[ABSTRAK]

Pertumbuhan perekonomian di Indonesia kian lama kian meningkat dan terus tumbuh ditengah krisis ekonomi yang melanda dunia. Kondisi seperti ini memerlukan sarana insfrastruktur yang sangat memadai sebagai alat mobilitas masyarakat dari daerah satu ke daerah lainnya. Pembangunan industri transportasi juga merupakan salah satu rencana yang harus dijalankan oleh pemerintah dalam melakukan pembangunan dan percepatan ekonomi Indonesia. Kereta api adalah jawaban dari masalah transportasi di Indonesia. Akan tetapi PT Kereta Api Indoensia pada masa lalu selalu terpuruk dan dianaktirikan. Tujuan dari penelitian ini adalah untuk mendapatkan gambaran dan pembelajaran tentang bagaimana sebuah organisasi perusahaan berkembang dan berevolusi dari masa kemasa. Sehingga kita dapat memprediksi bagaimana organisasi tersebut pada masa yang akan datang.

ABSTRACT

Indonesia's economy has been increasing even though world's economic crisis. A county in this situation needs a proper infrastructure for public to mobilize from one point to other. The development in transportation industry is one of the aspect government needs to process immediately to optimize the economic growth. Developing public train as mass transportation might have been the answer for Indonesia all along. But in the other side, PT Kereta Api Indonesia, as one of Indonesia's co rporate in public train transportation, had been through the worse in their history. The main purpose of this study and research is to get the descriptions about how an organization in a company grows and develops from time to time. So that we can learn about the pattern and predict the strategy for the future, Indonesia's economy has been increasing even though world's economic crisis.
