

Pemilu dan perempuan studi kasus modal sosial dan strategi anggota legislatif perempuan DPR RI terpilih Sulawesi Selatan dalam pemilu 2014 = Election and women case study social capital and strategies of women legislators elected of DPR RI in the elections of South Sulawesi 2014

Febrianto Syam, author

Deskripsi Lengkap: <https://lib.ui.ac.id/detail?id=20422826&lokasi=lokal>

Abstrak

[ABSTRAK

Tesis ini menggambarkan tentang modal sosial dan strategi yang digunakan kelima Anggota legislatif perempuan terpilih di Sulawesi Selatan. Latar belakang penulisan yaitu berawal dari fakta yang dilihat dari hasil pemilu tahun 2014 khususnya Provinsi Sulawesi Selatan dimana dari lima Anggota legislatif perempuan yang terpilih merupakan keluarga dari para penguasa yang ada di daerah tersebut meskipun dalam pertarungan perebutan kursi DPR RI, terdapat banyak calon perempuan yang juga berasal dari kalangan aktivis perempuan. Dengan metode kualitatif, hasil yang diperoleh yaitu modal sosial yang dimiliki oleh masing-masing Anggota legislatif perempuan yang terpilih menjadi kunci mereka untuk terlibat dalam pencalonan pada pemilu 2014 silam. Faktorfaktornya adalah pertama, karena kelima Anggota legislatif perempuan terpilih merupakan keluarga dari penguasa di daerah Sulawesi Selatan, maka dengan mudah dukungan birokrasi diberikan kepada mereka. Kedua, adanya beberapa bentuk kecurangan seperti money politics serta bentuk pelanggaran pemilu guna memenangkan kelimanya menyebabkan mereka berhasil memperoleh suara yang signifikan di daerah dimana keluarga mereka berkuasa.

<hr>

ABSTRACT

This thesis describes social capital and strategies used five female legislators elected in South Sulawesi Background of writing that originated from the fact that seen from the election results in 2014 especially South Sulawesi province where five legislators of elected women is the family of rulers in the area despite the fight for the seat of Parliament there are many female candidates are also come from women activists With qualitative methods the results obtained by the social capital which is owned by their respective legislative Members woman to be elected to key them to be involved in the nomination of the 2014 elections ago The factors is the first as the fifth legislative Members elected women is the family of the ruler in the area of South Sulawesi it can easily support given to their bureaucracy Second the existence of some form of fraud such as money politics as well as the violation of the election in order to win his fifth cause they managed to gain a significant voice in the area where their families in power ;This thesis describes social capital and strategies used five female legislators elected in South Sulawesi Background of writing that originated from the fact that seen from the election results in 2014 especially South Sulawesi province where five legislators of elected women is the family of rulers in the area despite the fight for the seat of Parliament there are many female candidates are also come from women activists With qualitative methods the results obtained by the social capital which is owned by their respective legislative Members woman to be elected to key them to be involved in the nomination of the 2014 elections ago The factors is the first as the fifth legislative Members elected women is the family of the ruler in the area of South Sulawesi it can easily support given to their bureaucracy Second the existence of some form of fraud such as money politics as well as the violation of the election in order to win his fifth cause they managed to gain a significant voice in the area where their families in power ;This thesis describes social capital and strategies used five female legislators elected in South Sulawesi Background of writing that originated from the fact that seen from the election results in 2014 especially South Sulawesi province where five legislators of elected women is the family of rulers in the area despite the fight for the seat of Parliament there are many female candidates are also come from women activists With qualitative methods the results obtained by the social capital which is owned by their respective legislative Members woman to be elected to key them to be involved in the nomination of the 2014 elections ago The factors is the first as the fifth legislative Members elected women is the family of the ruler in the area of South Sulawesi it can easily support given to their bureaucracy Second the existence of some form of fraud such as money politics as well as the violation of the election in order to win his fifth cause they managed to gain a significant voice in the area where their families in power , This thesis describes social capital and strategies used five female legislators elected in South Sulawesi Background of writing that originated from the fact that seen from the election results in 2014 especially South Sulawesi province where five legislators of elected women is the family of rulers in the area despite the fight for the seat of Parliament there are many female candidates are also come from women activists With qualitative methods the results obtained by the social capital which is owned by their respective legislative Members woman to be elected to key them to be involved in the nomination of the 2014 elections ago The factors is the first as the fifth legislative Members elected women is the family of the ruler in the area of South Sulawesi it can easily support given to their bureaucracy Second the existence of some form of fraud such as money politics as well as the violation of the election in order to win his fifth cause they managed to gain a significant voice in the area where their families in power]