ABSTRAK

Sejauh ini belum ada kajian tentang hubungan Majelis Ulama Indonesia (MUI) dan negara dari pendekatan inklusi. Studi-studi yang ada lebih memberi fokus pada hubungan MUI dan negara dari perspektif kooptasi, restriksi ketat dan akomodasi transaksional. Studi ini berargumentasi bahwa sejak meluasnya radikalisme dimana sejumlah ormas radikal ikut bergabung dalam insitusi MUI, pemerintahan Soesilo Bambang Yudhoyono (SBY) membuka ruang inklusi dan menjadikan MUI agen moderasi Islam radikal.

ABSTRACT

There is no study yet about the relationship between the Majelis Ulama Indonesia (MUI) and the state from inclusion perspective. The studies already made focused on the relationship between MUI and the state concerning in the cooptation perspective, restrictions and transactional accommodation. This study argues that since radicalism has spread and some radical organizations have joined in the MUI institution, the government of SBY has opened the inclusion space and made MUI becomes agen for moderating radical Islam
