Abstrak

Penelitian ini bertujuan menganalisis pengaruh identitas etnis dan faktor-faktor sosio-demografis terhadap peluang mengalami informalitas kerja di sektor formal. Dengan menggunakan data IFLS 2014, hasil regresi logistik biner menunjukkan bahwa faktor identitas etnis dan sosio-demografis-ekonomi signifikan dalam menentukan peluang mengalami informalitas kerja di sektor formal. Kebijakan yang dapat ditempuh yaitu refocusing kebijakan ketenagakerjaan kepada pekerja dengan karakteristik sebagai berikut: etnis non-lokal, etnis lokal di sektor sekunder, pekerja berpendidikan dasar dan menengah, pekerja laki-laki, pekerja perempuan usia muda atau perempuan yang telah menikah, pekerja di perkotaan di regional Jawa yang bergerak di sektor sekunder dan tersier.
