Abstrak

This article is aimed to explain meaning and spirit of war in Islam, mainly concerning war ethic, protection for war victim and after war regulation. Islam considers war as collective obligation, for the purpose of self-defence to maintain sovereignty. It is only permit for the war between Moslem and Non-moslem, which is diferent from internasional hunitarian law, which classified Â war into international arm conflict and Non-international arm conflict. Therefore, in Islam war is on expectation for self-defence purpose.
