Abstrak

How to keep a person or team on track and work well with diverse personalities. By definition, a facilitator is a person who makes things easy. But if you sometimes find the role to be tough?mainly because you're a manager, not a professional facilitator?this targeted book provides all the help you need. It teaches you the skills needed to keep a person, group, or team on track, and it shows you how to work well with diverse personalities. Designed for general managers whose time is at a premium, the book presents a six-step process and tools that you can apply in any situation?whether you're facilitating a short-term problemsolving session or a multi-year strategic planning project. You will learn how to: ? Build commitment and foster a "we" approach? Develop effective, time-saving agendas? Deal with equipment and logistics, such as room setup and flip chart techniques? Utilize different types of questioning techniques? Become an active listener? Give better feedback? Use tools such as brainstorming and storyboarding? Avoid groupthink.
