

ISEAS perspective: selections 2012-2013

Deskripsi Lengkap: <https://lib.ui.ac.id/detail?id=20442141&lokasi=lokal>

Abstrak

Contents :

- Foreword
- Who will be Indonesian President in 2014? by Maxwell Lane (Guest Writer)
- The seventh plenum of the communist party of Vietnam: the gains of the central committee by Ha Hoang Hop
- The struggle to amend Thailand's constitution by Michael J. Montesano
- Whither China's Myanmar stranglehold? by Stephanie Shannon and Nicholas Farrelly
- Malaysia's BN stays in power, but deep changes have nevertheless occurred by Ooi Kee Beng
- The significance of China-Malaysia industrial parks by Khor Yu Leng
- Steadily amplified rural votes decide Malaysian elections by Lee Hock Guan
- The rise of Chinese power and the impact on Southeast Asia by Rodolfo C. Severino
- The China-Myanmar energy pipelines: risks and benefits by Zhao Hong
- Moving ASEAN+1 FTAs towards an effective RCEP by Sanchita Basu Das
- Ethnic insurgencies and peacemaking in Myanmar by Tin Maung Maung Than
- Japan's growing angst over the South China Sea by Ian Storey
- Taking the income gap in Southeast Asia seriously by Aekapol Chongvilaivan
- Indonesian parties struggle for electability by Ulla Fionna
- Rohingya boat arrivals in Thailand: from the frying pan into the fire? by Su-Ann Oh
- APEC's model of green growth is a move forward by Lee Poh Onn
- China's FDI into Southeast Asia by Zhao Hong
- Hidden counter-revolution: a history of the centralisation of power in Malaysia by Francis Hutchinson
- The dominance of Chinese engineering contractors in Vietnam by Le Hong Hiep
- RCEP and TPP: comparisons and concerns by Sanchita Basu Das
- Implications of demographic trends in Singapore by Saw Swee-Hock
- Big power contest in Southeast Asia by Daljit Singh
- The resurgence of social activism in Malaysia by Ooi Kee Beng
- Pivoting Asia, engaging China-American strategy in East Asia by Daljit Singh
- Towards a code of conduct for the South China Sea by Rodolfo C. Severino
- List of ISEAS perspective issues