

Religious diversity in Muslim-majority states in Southeast Asia: areas of toleration nad conflict

Deskripsi Lengkap: <https://lib.ui.ac.id/detail?id=20442325&lokasi=lokal>

Abstrak

Contents

- Acknowledgments
- Glosary
- About the contributors
- Indonesia
 - 1. Introduction by Bernhard Platzdasch
 - 2. NU and Muhammadiyah: majority views on religious minorities in Indonesia by Robin Bush and Budhy Munawar-Rachman
 - 3. Islam, religious minorities, and the challenge of the blasphemy laws: a close look at the current liberal muslim discourse by Supriyanto Abdi
 - 4. Reading Ahmadiyah and discourses on freedom of religion in Indonesia by Andy Fuller
 - 5. Sanctions against popstars ... and politicians? Indonesia's 2008 pornography law and its aftermath by Helen Pausacker
 - 6. The inter-religious harmony forum, the ombudsman, and the state: resolving Church permit disputes in Indonesia? by Melissa Crouch
 - 7. In each other's shadow: building pentecostal Churches in muslim Java by En-Chieh Chao
 - 8. Christian-Muslim relations in post-conflict Ambon, Moluccas: adat, religion, and beyond by Birgit Bräuchler
 - 9. Chinese muslim cultural identities: possibilities and limitations of cosmopolitan Islam in Indonesia by Hew Wai Weng
 - 10. Majority and minority: preserving animist and mystical practices in far East Java by Nicholas Herriman
 - 11. An Abangan-like Group in a Santri Island: the religious identity of the Blater by Yanwar Pribadi
- Malaysia
 - 12. Introduction by Johan Saravanamuttu
 - 13. Islamic praxis and theory: negotiating Orthodoxy in contemporary Malaysia by Gerhard Hoffstaedter
 - 14. Religious pluralism and cosmopolitanism at the city crossroads by Yeoh Seng Guan
 - 15. The Christian response to state-led Islamization in Malaysia by Chong Eu Choong

- 16. The politics of Buddhist organizations in Malaysia by Tan Lee Ooi
- 17. Hindraf as a response to Islamization in Malaysia by Arunajeet Kaur
- 18. "Deviant" muslims: the plight of Shias in contemporary Malaysia by Norshahril Saat
- 19. Being Christians in muslim-majority Malaysia: the Kelabit and Lun Bawang experiences in Sarawak by Poline Bala
- 20. Everyday religiosity and the ambiguation of development in East Malaysia: reflections on a dam-construction and resettlement project by Liana Chua
- Index