ABSTRAK

Sebuah media daring jurnalistik bernama Beritagar.id memungkinkan berita dibuat tanpa melalui proses liputan langsung ke lapangan. Mereka menggunakan teknologi computer assisted reporting yang dapat merangkum informasi yang tersebar luas di internet untuk kemudian mereka kurasikan menjadi berita. Padahal, media-media yang mereka kurasikan belum tentu menerapkan prinsip-prinsip jurnalisme terutama prinsip akuntabilitas publik sebagaimana mestinya. Disini, dapat dilihat penerapan prinsip tersebut terutama pada isu pemberitaan yang sensitif macam demo Jakarta 4 November 2016. Kata kunci: media jurnalistik daring, Beritagar.id, prinsip jurnalisme akuntabilitas publik, demo Jakarta 4 November.

ABSTRACT

A journalistic rsquo s online media named Beritagar.id can produce a news without reporting directly to the location. They use computer assisted reporting technology that can gathers all the information on the internet, and they curate it to be a news. In fact, the media that they curate does not necessarily apply the journalism as a public good rsquo s principle. Here, you can examine the application of that principle, especially on sensitive issues like Jakarta rsquo s November 4th rally.
