

Implikasi juara lomba desa pada perkembangan desa

Rahmawati Ahfan, author

Deskripsi Lengkap: <https://lib.ui.ac.id/detail?id=20449236&lokasi=lokal>

Abstrak

A race of the village and kelurahan intended to evaluate and assess progress on the governments efforts and the development of local government togetherwith rural and urban communities concerned. The purpose of this study is identifying steps taken by the government after the local village race champion and analyze the implications of the implementation of the race village on village development. This study is qualitative deskriptif with descriptive analysis technique qualitative as well the provincial government as well as the district through SKPD not yet carry out monitoring coaching and administration of stimulants are programmed to race champion village. However through the leadership of the new governor of central java, vilage began to receive attention in which these villages became desa mandiri project will could be applied to the villages another. Winner of the race village in 3 (three) locus of the village pilangrejo mranak and mentosari has a positive impact on the level of development of the post championship race village. This is reflected in the indicator-indicator rural development are used as assessment could stimulate rural development level and significant impact on all aspects of people's lives for the better