Abstrak

Jalan Menikung is one of the unique literary works. The uniqueness is reflected in both the cultural background and the elements of culture. This indicates that the author has rich experiences in culture. The cultural values in this literary work do not only belong to the ethnic culture in Indonesia, but also to other cultures. Jalan Menikung is influenced by the authors experiences which he absorbed from other cultures, when he made a tour to some places in the world. The crux of the problem in this literary work is concerned with Javanese people and their culture, which is influenced by modern culture, especially American, Japanese, Chinese, and Minangkabau.
