Abstrak

The principal objective of this article is to focus on the life story of Siau w May Lie and her Views about her past. She is the daughter of the well-known, influential politician, Siau w Giok Tjhan. Between 1945 and 1965 Siau w Giok Tjhan was member of the Parliament of the Indonesian Republic and chairman of Baperki (Badan Permusyawaratan Kewarganegaraan Indonesia, 1954-1965). Her lifestory fits into the category of respondents with a cumulative migration history. As the Chinese Indonesian Heritage Center (CIHC) of the KITLV believes that the recording of life stories is a valuable addition to the collection of material heritage, the interview with Siau w May Lie about her life and opinions is an example of the interviews and part of the research conducted by the Oral History Project of the CHIC.
