Abstrak

This volume provides a short introduction to the methodological tools and concepts of autoethnography, combining theoretical approaches with practical 'how to' information. Written for social science students, teachers, teacher educators and educational researchers, the text shows readers how autoethnographers collect, analyse and report data. Autoethnography: Process, Product, and Possibility for Critical Social Research provides a short introduction to the methodological tools and concepts of autoethnography, combining theoretical approaches with practical "how to" information. Written for social science students, teachers, teacher educators, and educational researchers, the text shows readers how autoethnographers collect, analyze, and report data. With its grounding in critical social theory and inclusion of innovative methods, this practical resource will move the field of autoethnography forward
