Abstrak

Apoteker merupakan salah satu tenaga kesehatan yang memiliki tugas dan tanggung jawab serta perannya sangat dibutuhkan dalam pengelolaan obat baik dalam rangka produksi maupun pelayanan kepada masyarakat luas. Pelayanan kefarmasian untuk masyarakat secara langsung dapat dilakukan di apotek, rumah sakit, maupun puskesmas. Sedangkan dalam rangka melakukan pengembangan serta produksi obat dengan kualitas yang telah terstandar dapat dilakukan di industri farmasi. Bertujuan agar terlatihnya calon apoteker dalam melakukan tugas kefarmasian serta meningkatkan pemahaman terhadap peran, fungsi, posisi, dan tanggung jawab apoteker sehingga diperlukan praktik langsung di lapangan dengan melakukan Praktik Kerja Profesi Apoteker. Praktik Kerja dilakukan bertempa di Apotek Roxy Klender selama periode Februari 2022 dan PT. Soho Industri Pharmasi selama periode Maret – April 2022. Dengan dilakukannya praktik kerja diharapkan apoteker dapat mengetahui tugas serta tanggung jawabnya baik secara langsung maupun tidak langsung kepada masyarakat luas.

.....Pharmacists are one of the health workers who have duties and responsibilities and their role is very much needed in the management of drugs both in the context of production and service to the wider community. Pharmaceutical services for the community can be directly carried out at pharmacies, hospitals, and health centers. Meanwhile, in order to develop and produce drugs with standardized quality, it can be done in the pharmaceutical industry. The aim is to train prospective pharmacists in carrying out pharmaceutical duties and increase understanding of the roles, functions, positions, and responsibilities of pharmacists so that direct practice is needed in the field by conducting Pharmacist Professional Work Practices. Work Practices are carried out at the Roxy Klender Pharmacy during the period of February 2022 and PT. Soho Pharmasi Industry during the period March – April 2022. By doing the work practice, it is hoped that pharmacists can know their duties and responsibilities both directly and indirectly to the wider community.
