

Hubungan agama dan politik di Israel: Studi tentang nasionalisme dan kiprah partai-partai keagamaan = Relation between religion and politics in Israel: Study about nationalism and religious parties action

Ihmal Halim, author

Deskripsi Lengkap: <https://lib.ui.ac.id/detail?id=98278&lokasi=lokal>

Abstrak

Research toward political and religion in Israel more instructed to explain religious parties action in Israel at nationalism context. Existence state of Israel as a Jewish State claim various element of orthodox Jews to involve actively through religious parties in political stage with Judaism values implementation target in Israel.

Source of data obtained from journal, mass media, book and also the source of other sekunder. There is even also the source of primary in the form of relevant document and data and also masterpiece which born from direct involver with this objek study. Other sources is also supported to through in internet web sites.

Religious parties struggle in carrying religion ideology pursuant to Judaism doctrine indicating that even these parties have enough significant role. Acquirement voice in general election and also in each governance of coalition in Israel, many matter become intact determinant to existence of formed coalition government it self. Program which carried by these parties ever try to realize Judaism values with an active involvement of the government through religious institutes of state or by a political policy.

This party religion action - since starting of parliament general election 1949 till 1996- owning separate role in political chess and also give a big contribution to Israel existence as representation of the Jewish State claimed to involve active in implementation assess and Judaism doctrine in context life of nation and state.