Ditemukan juga bahwa Brand Image dapat memoderasi pengaruh hiburan, ease of use, dan konten social media advertising terhadap consumer buying behavior Gen M.

.....The development of the global halal industry is very promising. This development can be felt for Indonesia as a country with the largest Muslim population in the world. The media plays an important role in the development of the halal industry, especially with the rapid and widespread development of social media. One group of social media users is Gen M. Gen M is a Muslim millennial group who has the characteristics of being literate in technology, fighting spirit, young, and modern. Based on the development of social media users from year to year, which continues to increase, it certainly provides new and great opportunities for many industries, including the fashion industry, which includes the simple fashion industry. Companies in the industry have changed their way of marketing by focusing more on marketing using platforms on social media. This study will analyze how social media advertising influences the buying behavior of Muslim consumers, especially for Gen M. This study will also examine whether there is a moderating effect of brand image on research variables. This research will combine the Partial Least Squares Structural Equation Model (PLS-SEM) with the S-O-R model. The survey was conducted on 253 respondents using a self-administered questioner method. The results of this study show that aspects of entertainment, credibility, ease of use, and content in social media advertising can positively and significantly influence brand image and buying behavior of Gen M consumers. It was also found that brand image can moderate the effect of entertainment, ease of use, and social media advertising content on Gen M consumer buying behavior.
